PILGRIMAGE TO POLAND

There will be a meeting Thursday, September 9 at 6:00 pm in the church social rooms for all those going on the trip to Poland.

Building and Grounds Success Stories

In recent weeks with favorable summer weather, our janitorial staff was able to complete a number of projects around the parish property. The church roof was checked and a few repairs were required, including fixing loose shingles and ice guards. The roof is now determined to be in good shape. Also, several damaged sidewalks have been replaced with new concrete in the rear of the school and church. This also includes an improved handicapped entrance at the rear of the gym. Be assured that we are attempting to perform work in the most efficient way possible, making the most of the parish's "Repair & Improvement" fund. Thank you to our janitorial staff for their hard work and thank you parishioners for your continued financial support.

A warm thank you to everyone for the many birthday cards, gifts, calls, newspaper wishes and prayers. I am very blessed to have such thoughtful parishioners. God Bless you all!

Father Mikalajunas

NOMINATIONS FOR NEW PARISH COUNCIL MEMBERS
 Every year at this time, each parish household is asked to submit 6 names as nominations for Parish Council membership. You may nominate any practicing registered Roman Catholic parishioner 18 years of age and older, who is an attending, practicing, supporting member of Holy Trinity/St. Stanislaus and has concern for spiritual, social, physical, financial and missionary welfare of the people and parish. Ballots are available in church this weekend and next, and should be submitted by Sunday, September 5. From these names, three will be chosen to serve 3-year terms on the Council, beginning in September. Meetings are held 4-6 times per year, usually on a Monday evening. Your participation and ideas are welcome. Please remember to fill out the ballot and drop into the collection basket.

Confessions for September first Friday will be Thursday, September 2 at 4:00 PM.
