We are Summer Cleaning!!! Volunteers have been cleaning and organizing the Church's social rooms in an effort to use each room to its fullest capacity. These rooms are used for our parish functions and outside organizations host events in these rooms as well. Throughout this cleaning process, several crucifixes and framed religious artwork have been found from our former Holy Trinity School. The parish council has decided that parishioners and/or alumni should enjoy the crucifixes and religious artwork in their homes. Each piece has been cleaned, lightly touched up and received a brass plaque indicating it is from the school. There is a limited supply of each and the parish is asking for a small donation of $50.00 for a crucifix and $25.00 for a framed picture. Please call the rectory if you are interested. We ask that in taking such an item, that you keep, cherish, honor and praise God for his goodness to you and our parish.
