CALLED BY NAME: NURTURING VOCATIONS IN OUR PARISH AND DIOCESE

History was made recently with the election of Pope Leo XIV—the first American-born pope—whose vocation began in the parish pews of St. Mary of Assumption Church in Chicago. Raised in the life of the Church, he served as an altar boy, sang in the choir, and attended Catholic school, all of which helped form his call to serve. His story is a powerful reminder of how vital our parishes and schools are in helping young people hear and respond to God's call.

Here in the Diocese of Syracuse, we have reason to celebrate as well: this Saturday, two young men will be ordained to the priesthood at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception. Their journey, like Pope Leo's, was shaped by the faith-filled communities around them. To continue this mission of nurturing future leaders in the Church, our diocese is once again launching the Called by Name initiative.

This program encourages parishioners and educators to prayerfully consider the young people in their midst who may be called to the priesthood, diaconate, or consecrated life. This weekend, parishes across the diocese will distribute nomination cards during all Masses, inviting you to write the name of someone who demonstrates the qualities of a future Church leader. Schools will do the same throughout this week, focusing on students in grades 8–12.

Nominations will be shared with the Diocesan Office of Vocation Promotion, and those nominated will receive a personal invitation to the Vocations Picnic with Bishop Lucia on Monday, August 4 at Immaculate Conception Parish in Fayetteville—an evening of fellowship, prayer, and discernment.

This initiative follows the recent celebration of the 62nd World Day of Prayer for Vocations, a global reminder to pray for more laborers for the Lord's harvest (Mt 9:38). Let us support vocations by actively participating in this year's Called by Name—a meaningful step in raising up the next generation of servant-leaders in our Church.

Diocesan Mass for the home-bound, Sunday at 6:00 AM on WKTV.
